

QUICK LESSON FOR THOSE ON THE GO

(For this lesson, if possible, use the 1984 New International Version)

Lesson is from Genesis 37:1-4

(v.1) Where did Jacob live? By what name is this land known?

(v.2) How old was Joseph?

(v.2) Joseph was tending what? He was doing this along with his what?

(v.2) Joseph brought what to his father concerning his brothers?

(v.3) Who loved Joseph more than any of his other sons? Why did he love Joseph more?

(v.3) What did Israel make for his son Joseph?

(v.4) How did Joseph's brothers feel about him when they saw that their father loved Joseph more than any of them?

(v.4) What could the brothers not do?

Thoughts to ponder:

[Note: Jacob was also given (by the Lord) the name "Israel."]

What is jealousy?

Is there any jealousy shown in these verses? If so, by whom?

Should a father love one of his children more than any of the others? Why? Why not?

What is "tattle telling"? Is there a possible example of "tattle telling" in these verses?

Are there times when we should let a parent know when things are done by others that are wrong? What example can you give?

If we give a precious gift to just one of our children, how do you think the other children will feel?

Hate is a very strong emotion; how can we control ourselves when we feel ourselves having this type of emotion?

Got questions about the lesson, let me know.
