

QUICK LESSON FOR THOSE ON THE GO

(For this lesson, if possible, use the 1984 New International Version)

Lesson is from Acts 10:1-8

(v.1) At Caesarea there was a man that went by what name? He was a what? With what group?

(v.2) Cornelius and all his family were described as being what two? What 2 things did he do?

(v.3) What happened one day about three in that afternoon? He distinctly saw what?

(v.4) What did he say to the angel of God?

(v.4) Cornelius' prayers and gifts to the poor had come up as a what?

(v.5) The angel told him to send men to what place? Bring back whom?

(v.6) Peter was staying where and with whom?

(v.7) After the angel left, Cornelius called for what three?

(v.8) What did Cornelius tell them? He sent them where?

Thoughts to ponder:

A Centurion was a Roman soldier who was often placed in charge of a 100 men.

Why do you think Cornelius addressed the angel as "Lord"?

What was Cornelius' attitude about God?

Why do you think Cornelius cared about those in need?

What is a memorial offering?

Why do you think Cornelius did precisely what the angel had told him to do?

What kind of reputation did Cornelius have?

Got questions about the lesson, let me know.
